Stevenson House provides 120 units of HUD & PBV subsidized senior housing units. The waitlist opening will be for the 86 HUD studio units. The property is situated on 2.9 acres of well-maintained grounds with three low rise buildings, each offers modern and purposefully designed studios and one-bedroom apartments

All apartments have a full kitchen, bath and a separate storage locker. Amenities include two libraries, computers for resident use, lounges with TV and piano, congregate dining room, recreation room with fitness equipment including a ping pong table, outdoor areas for walking, garden plots for residents and sitting areas in the garden for socializing. There is robust service programming and residents can participate in a plethora of classes and programs that are specially designed to meet the needs of the community.

La Comida Lunch Program currently operates a lunch program, serving nutritionally balanced each weekday at Stevenson House. The community is ideally situated within walking distance to grocery stores, pharmacy, restaurants, public transportation, the city library and acres of grassy park in the backyard with tennis courts, picnic areas, pickleball courts, walking trail, dog park, play structures and more.
